- e. It was also announced that election results would be communicated to the Membership via e-mail.

9. Treasurer Yearly Financial Report:

- a. Treasurer Dave Schwarz presented the Chorus' current cash and investment positions. He indicated that we can meet our obligations and "weather the storm" for awhile.

- b. Dave also announced that our PPP (Payroll Protection Program) application was approved in the amount of $14,912.00, and outlined some of the allowed expenses that can be paid out of it.
- c. Finally, Dave took questions from the floor.

10. COVID-19 Impacts and Fall Season Plans: Ira Rubins reviewed some issues pertaining to the interruptions caused by the pandemic. He pointed out that some decisions may be made for us, e.g. our rehearsal or performance venues deciding not to open.

11. Artistic Director Comments:

- a. Brook Larson reviewed the Chorus' 91st season and plans for the 92nd season. He mentioned that plans for the new season are uncertain now but will become better known as time goes on.
- b. Brook also outlined highlights of the proposed 2020-2021 calendar.
- c. He congratulated and thanked those who contributed materially to the success of the Chorus' season.
- d. In closing, he gave his thoughts re virtual rehearsals and performances vs. live rehearsals and performances.

12. Operations Director Comments:

- a. Cyndee Chaffee summarized changes and improvements to existing policies and procedures: front of house, attendance policy, committees, venues, Boys to Men, 2022 tour.
- b. Cyndee also discussed what the Boys to Men Task Force has been planning for the upcoming season: full day, break-out educational workshops, food trucks, etc.
- c. She summarized what has been done to-date vis-à-vis the planned 2022 European tour – start saving now!
- d. Finally, she recognized and thanked all front-of-house volunteers.

- e. Outreach
- f. Production
- g. Social

14. Member Comments: Member comments were received from the floor.

15. Closing Remarks: President Ira Rubins:

- a. Commented on the way in which the year had closed out;
- b. Invited everyone to attend (virtually) our upcoming Board meeting;
- c. Said what a pleasure it had been to work with such a supportive and hard-working Board;
- d. Shared with us that the way in which the Annual Meeting was being held reminded him of how fragile our existence in the world actually is, and how important our personal and emotional connections are to our well-being;
- e. Said that rehearsals and performances would be challenging, and encouraged us to stay focused and flexible;
- f. Thanked Orpheus for the opportunity to serve as President, saying that he was truly humbled to have worked with so many dedicated and committed volunteers.

16. Recess for Voting: The meeting recessed at 8:52pm so that voting for Board positions could take place. The link to the Survey Monkey ballot was given via e-mail. The election results will be attached to these minutes as Appendix A and incorporated herein by reference.

17. Adjourn: The meeting adjourned on Thursday, May 7, 2020, at 9:00pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Alex Aren0, Secretary
