Hi Frank,

Thank you for contacting Alfred Music.

Please accept this email as permission to stream your performance and/or pre-recorded file of Hard Times Come Again No More on the platform of your choice. This permission is granted at no charge. The video must be removed immediately, 7 days after the performance has ended. If you would like to make this a permanent upload for on-demand viewing at a later date and time on a platform such as Youtube or on a company/school website, please let me know, as a $50 sync licensing fee will apply, along with a $5 admin fee (per composition).

Also, Alfred has recently entered into an agreement with Facebook, whereby they will pay us directly for any of our music used on their platform. If you post this to Facebook or Instagram you will not need a license or permission.

Please let us know if you have any additional questions or concerns.
